

Welcome!

Cherryville Community Food & Resource Society (CCFRS) hopes to provide your child with a fun and positive experience they will remember for many years to come. To help us provide a safe, secure and enriching environment for participants in our Youth Arts & Culture programs, all participants are expected to follow the Code of Conduct and to interact appropriately and productively in a group setting.

As a part of our programs, CCFRS wishes to encourage and teach responsibility and respect. The Code of Conduct has been created to encourage all minors participating in youth programs at CCFRS to foster these traits. Parents, please review the following Code of Conduct with your child and make sure they understand the expectations.

Code of Conduct

As a CCFRS Youth Arts & Culture program participant I will:

- Show respect to staff and cooperate fully with their instructions.
- Know and follow the rules of the program in which I am participating.
- Respect the rights and beliefs of others and treat others with kindness.
- Communicate in an appropriate manner; foul language/gestures are not tolerated.
- Act responsibly; horseplay, teasing, unkind actions are not tolerated.
- Use program equipment, supplies, and facilities properly.
- Respect the property of others.
- I will not disrupt the program and/or hinder the learning experience of others.
- Always remain with the group and not leave the program without permission.
- Will not cause harm to other participants or staff - pushing, kicking, hitting or fighting are not tolerated.

Conduct Management

Minor incidents will be brought to the student's attention and suggestions will be made on how to correct the behavior. Continued violation will result in notification of the parent. Staff will seek parental support to resolve issues and to encourage positive program participation. Participants who remain disruptive after consultation may be dismissed from the program.

Thank you for taking the time to review this information with your child and helping to make the Cherryville Arts & Culture programs exciting and enriching for all participants.
